Membership Guidelines

The following is an overview of what the club's objectives are and what is expected of members in order to achieve those objectives. Full details of the clubs rules and regulations can be found on the club noticeboard.

The objectives of the club are:

- To encourage the obedience and agility training and exhibition of dogs and to provide Obedience and Agility training classes
- To hold Obedience Tests and Agility Events, Obedience and Agility Ribbon Trials conforming to New Zealand Kennel Club (NZKC) standards
- To provide facilities to hold Obedience and Agility Tests/Events, Ribbon Trials and Training classes
- To promote good fellowship and mutual support among dog owners and fanciers
- To support other clubs recognised by the NZKC
- To promote the well-being of dogs in general

The committee will do its best to ensure that these objectives are met but in order to achieve these, the committee requires the support of club members. In particular, but not limited to, the committee requests that member undertake the following:

- To represent the club in a loyal and positive manner and to support fellow club members
- To assist with the organisation and the running of official club shows and other club activities whenever possible
- To assist in the day to day running of the club by undertaking one or more of the duties of the club. These duties include, but are not limited to, committee work, instructing classes, fundraising activities and working bees to maintain and/or improve club assets

In addition to the above, the club requires its members to:

- Abide by the rules and regulations of the Wairarapa Dog Training Club Inc.
- Abide by their local authority's dog control regulations
- Abide by NZKC regulations
- Ensure their dogs are regularly vaccinated against all the common diseases e.g. Distemper, Hepatitis and Parvovirus

Membership application procedures

All applications for membership must be made on the official membership form and these are to be forwarded without alterations, along with the appropriate fee, to the club Secretary.

New Members

New members are required to have their membership forms endorsed by an instructor or committee member. The sponsor endorsing the membership application will ensure that the applicant fully understands the membership guidelines and benefits associated with being a club member. The club Secretary will submit all applications for membership to the committee for approval and ratification. No application for membership will be declined without just cause.

Existing Members

The annual renewal of an existing membership will be automatically approved upon receipt of the completed membership form and the appropriate fee.

Life Members

Life members are required to annually complete a membership form and forward it to the Club Secretary. This will ensure that club records are kept up to date.
